Whether the man leaves home because of cold and poorly cooked dinners, or many afternoon bridge parties, the use of cosmetics or just because he is vicious is one of the many untold.

Whether the woman leaves because the husband spends more than his share of the money, plays too much pool, expects her to laugh at all his jokes or makes her saw the wood is the other story untold.

Florida? He has served in the executive office of Whitfield, and is thoroughly familiar with himself with every department of the state's affairs, and has a more accurate knowledge, perhaps, of state conditions than any one existing excepting the governor.

The retirement of Judge Mabie marks the ending of a long and enviable record in the service of Florida, and those who have known and learned to love him express for him the wishes for peace and prosperity as a reward for his fidelity.

ORLANDO MAN INJURED.
Auto Turns Turtle and Pins Mr. Dade Underneath.
Ocala, June 6.—Mr. Dade, a well known commission merchant of Orlando, was pinned underneath his auto when it turned turtle on the Kendrick road. Further than being badly bruised, he suffered no inconvenience.

Fortunately, at the time, another auto was in the vicinity, and the occupants lifted Mr. Dade's machine off him. He was brought here to have the scratches on his face dressed, and later continued his journey to Orlan

Norwich, England, June 7.—The trawler Little Boy, of Lowestoft, has arrived at that port with the crews of the trawlers Horace and Economy, sunk by the Germans.

A German submarine stopped the three trawlers in the North Sea on Thursday and gave the crews of the Horace and the Economy five minutes to board the Little Boy. After the transfer had been made the fishermen were sunk by bombs.

London, June 7.—The steam drifter Ena May, of Peterhead, the trawler Strathbran and the sailing ship George and Mary, all have been sent to the bottom by German submarines. Of all three were saved.

Kirkwall, Orkney Island, June 7.—Three more British ships have been sunk by German submarines. The steam fishing vessels Kathleen, of Peterhead, and Evening Star and Cortes, of Aberdeen, were sent to the bottom. The crews were landed here.

Leith, Scotland, June 7.—The steamer Sunnet Head was torpedoed. The crew was ordered into the boats at Berwick.

Casualty List Heaviest of War.
London, June 7.—The casualty list for the week end are the heaviest issued since the war began. They include eighty officers and 5,620 men, of whom 1,674 were killed. This brings the total British losses during the last week to 900 officers and 9,000 men.
